PAPER MONEY.

Old Bank Bills and Private Issues.

The finest and by far the most extensive and important collection of this circulating medium ever submitted for public competition, comprising, as it does, 675 bills ranging in value from $1.00 to $100, with one of $1,000 (Vermont has 50 and 75c. notes.) A few notes are mended, and as many poor, but the number of these is comparatively inconsiderable. The great majority may be fairly classed as good to fine. Should a starting bid of 25c. per note be offered, the collection would be sold as a whole, embracing lots 48 to 62 inclusive. Otherwise they will be sold per lot as catalogued.

A VALUABLE AND HIGHLY INTERESTING RELIC OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY.

687 The die from which the obverse of the Confederate Half Dollar was struck. The obverse of the United States Half Dollar of 1861, which was then in the possession of the Mint at New Orleans, was used for the reverse. From these dies but four impressions were struck, and here the project for a coin of the Confederacy seems to have ended, probably for want of the precious metal to strike them on. A cancellation of the die has been made by a straight file-cut across the face to prevent its further use. Otherwise, it is in perfect condition.
